A NEW HUE: Color Of The Year

Pantone has named the Color of the Year. And this year is all about the color:

"Greenery." This color is the perfect "combination of yellow and blue, or warmth and a certain cool."

The color has inspired food, architecture, and most importantly décor trends for 2017.

"GREENERY IS ABOUT UNITY AND COMMUNITY
—CONNECTING TO ONESELF AND OTHERS AND A HIGHER PURPOSE, NATURE."

This color is perfect for the New Year as it resembles nature and the environment. And by bringing green into your environment, you can reduce stress and strain from the year past.

Did you know?

Greenery is symbolic of new beginnings.
