How to Decorate a Bookshelf

Do's and Don'ts provided by The Scout Guide

“A room without books is like a body without a soul.”
— Marcus Tullius Cicero

Dos

Do start by taking everything off the shelves. When you're ready to start building them back, use only the things that you love.

Do pay attention to color. Arrange books according to color, and consider removing dust jackets from hardcovers to create a clean, harmonious look. If books are in sets, keep them together to achieve cohesion.

Do vary placement of books. Fill some shelves with books completely, making a full length of books from left to right. On other shelves, turn some books at an angle, stack them, and break up a row by introducing a sculptural piece, vase, or box placed on top of a stack of three books.

Donts

Don't obsess over symmetry. However, keeping shelves balanced by paying attention to the visual weight of items is important.

Don't spread many little things across a shelf. This will end up looking busy. Instead, if you have small things you wish to display, group them together or put them inside a glass box or on a tray.

Don't use paperback books on your bookshelves in living spaces. Stick to hardcovers in the more public rooms.

3 Ways to bring Nautical Navy into your Home

1. Use it as a color in your foyer to grab the attention of your guests as soon as they walk into the door!
2. Buy a pillow in the color! By putting this bold color in the form of a pillow on your bed or sofa, you can tie together your room!
3. You can also use this color as an accent

design by Gigi Horsley

Nautical Navy is a color we frequently see at Paysage. Its cool undertones and calming presence is why so many people are attracted to this color! The pictures shown are great examples of how you can utilize this color in your own home!

GIGI'S KITCHEN

Poisson en Papillotes

INGREDIENTS

2 (6-ounce) grouper fillets
 Salt and freshly ground black pepper
 1/2 pint grape tomatoes, halved
 12 Kalamata olives, pitted and halved
 2 tablespoons capers, drained
 Thin slices of red onion, taste
 Thin slices of red bell pepper
 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped
 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
 2 tablespoons dry white wine
 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Cut two 18-inch long pieces of parchment paper. Fold in half then cut half-circle or heart shape. Open flat and place on a baking sheet.

Wash fish fillets and pat dry. Season both sides with salt and black pepper.

Place a fish fillet on the right side of the parchment paper. Top each fillet with equal amounts of tomatoes, olives, capers, red onion, red bell pepper, garlic, olive oil, white wine, red pepper flakes. Top each fillet with a lemon slice.

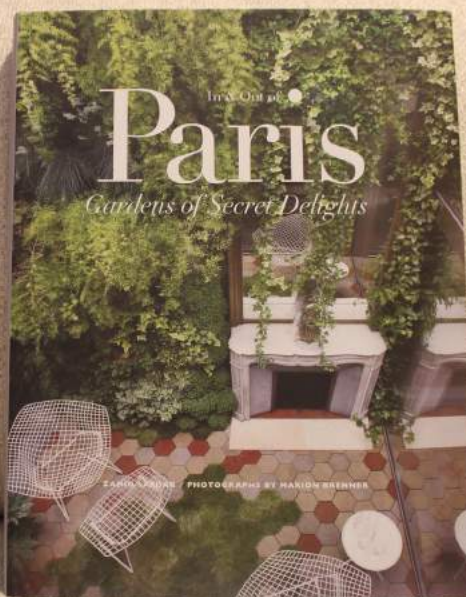

Place left half of parchment paper over fish and seal the edge, making small folds every 1/2-inch to 1-inch all the way around until completely sealed.

Bake for 15-18 minutes or until parchment paper has puffed up and fish is cooked. Transfer to a plate and with scissors, cut into the top of the packet, being careful and aware of the hot steam that will escape.

Enjoy!

Color does not add a pleasant quality to design - it reinforces it.

- Pierre Bonnard

Pantone has released their colors for fall 2017!

Shaded Spruce is the color we used for the newsletter this month.

Shaded Spruce is a beautiful color used frequently in coastal-inspired design.

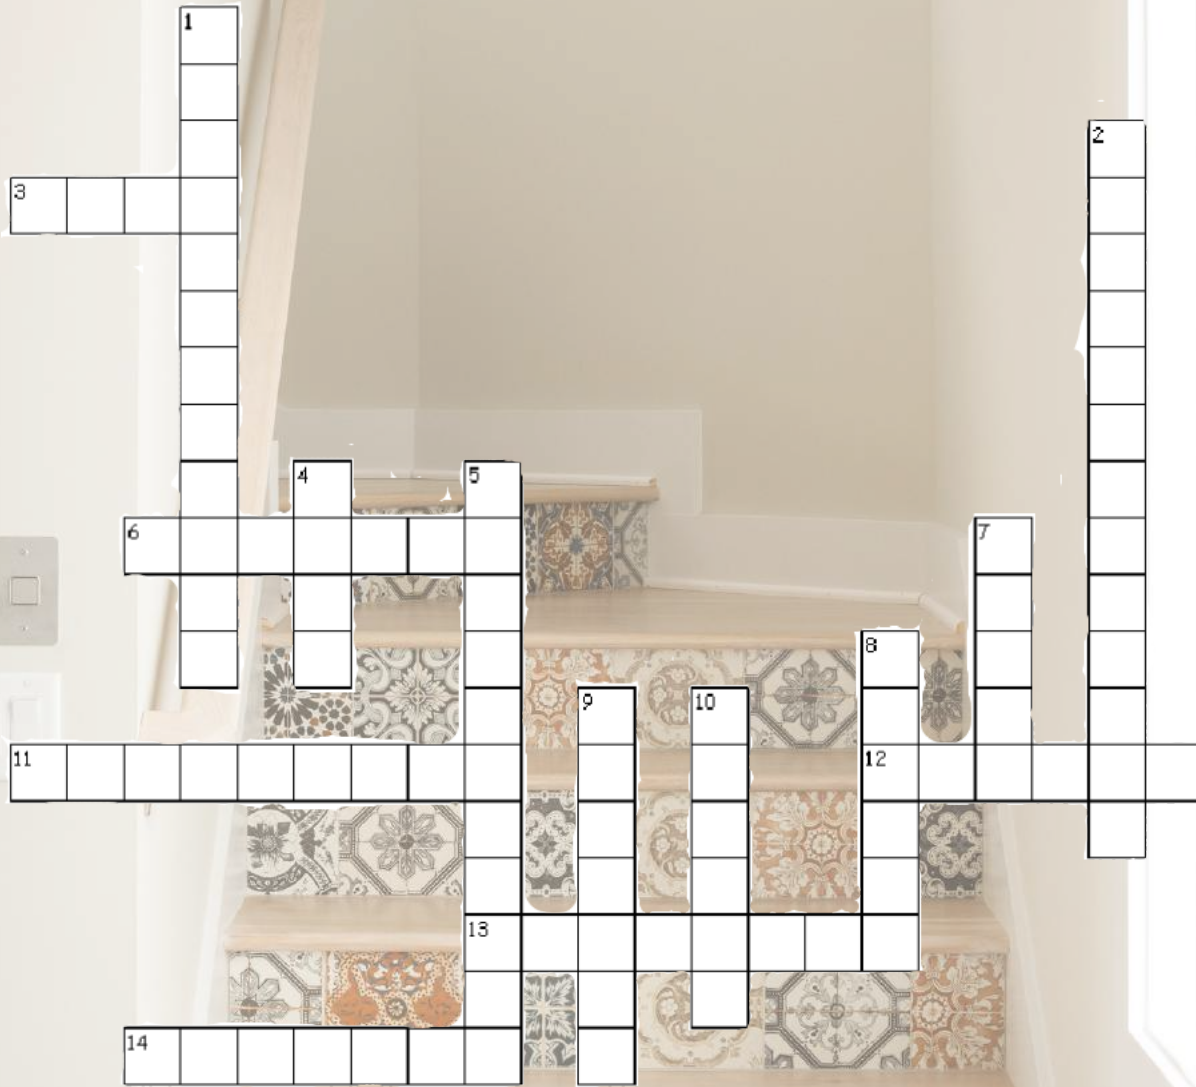

It is also easy to work with and is able to change a room from "outdated" to fresh."

Did you know that every season Pantone evaluates the colors used the most during New York Fashion Week.

Then, the information is used to create the color report!
