A Note from Paysage

At Paysage we have sweet summer vibes...

In June we see the seasons change, extended summer hours, and new treasures from market arrive.

All of these help our clients escape to the Paysage boutique experience.

DESIGN & DÉCOR:

Escape to Paysage boutique

With summer just around the corner, you may want a getaway to rest your mind.

But you don't have to go too far to enjoy your beach vacation... you can escape to the Paysage experience.

"Effortlessly sophisticated and chic, with a splash of coastal trendiness."

What is the Paysage experience? Well, it is the special impression that is left on our clients who become lifelong customers of our design & décor.

Owner and designer, Gigi Sireyjol-Horsley, makes sure that your experience at Paysage is handled with care and expertise from start to finish. Paysage will help turn your house into a home.

*"The ache for home lives in all of us, the safe place where we can go as we are and not be questioned."
- Maya Angelou*

Hazelnut is a beautiful, earthy color that represents so many different pieces found in the Paysage collection.

Hazelnut works great for accent walls, side tables, lamps, and any home decor pieces that help bring your home together.

Here is an example of the color Hazelnut being used for the wall color, as well as the chest color. It ties the room together with its warm, yet inviting ambiance.

BBQ EXTRAS

Here are some brilliantly simple ideas to make your barbecue extra special.

- Chop sweetcorn cobs in half, cook on the barbecue until charred, then smother with butter and a shake of sea salt mixed with chilli flakes to taste.
- Halve red peppers and discard the seeds, brush with olive oil and leave to sizzle and soften over the hot coals.
- Place a medium-sized whole aubergine on the barbecue and turn at the aubergine in half, scoop out the smoky flesh and mash with a couple taste. Serve as a dip or smear on lamb burgers or vegetable brochettes.
- Slit large chillies down one side, remove the seeds and stuff with strips of seasoned mozzarella cheese. Cook until the chillies are charred and the mozzarella soft and gooey.
- Barbecued bananas and soft fruits round off a barbecue nicely. Place whole bananas (complete with skins) over the embers until the skin blackens and the flesh is soft (hedonists might like to slit the banana first and insert pieces of chocolate). Place ripe peach, nectarine or plum halves flesh side down on the grill, turn the fruit when it starts to soften and sprinkle liberally with soft brown sugar and ground cinnamon, pop a knob of butter into the hole and continue to cook until the butter melts and the sugar caramelizes.
- Don't forget the marshmallows to toast over the dying embers!

BOOK OF THE MONTH: Beside the Seaside

"Mouthwatering recipes for fish and shellfish, picnics and packed lunches, beachside barbecues, homemade ice-cream combined with magical photographs to evoke glowing memories of long, lazy bucket-and-spade days..."

Ready for the Summer Barbecue?

If so, then stop by Paysage and pick up "Beside the Seaside!"

In "Beside the Seaside," author Carolyn Caldicott shares "no-nonsense recipes to get you out of the kitchen and into the sunshine without a soggy sandwich in sight."

After reading this book, you will become a barbecue and picnic master while enjoying every bite!

PAYSAGE BROCANTE MARKET

"Brocante" in english means "flea market."

The brocante market carries all different types of items that are not considered as antiques for various reasons (condition, repairs, time period, etc...).

The Paysage Brocante Market is our special hand-picked décor pieces that represent this unique collection.

We hope that you enjoy our brocante market as much as we are!

PAYSAGE FEATURE IN HOUSE OF TURQUOISE

Paysage was recently featured in the House of Turquoise, a design blog, written by Erin Olson Moser.

Below is the article for all our Paysage readers to enjoy!

I know this Carolina beach house designed by Gigi Sireyjol-Horsley, the owner and interior designer of Paysage out of Wilmington, North Carolina, got your turquoise-loving hearts racing! Captured by photographer Kelly Starbuck, the coastal-inspired home is filled with a soothing palette, tons of great texture and splashes of turquoise throughout! Can we just take a minute to drool over the turquoise Lacanche range?! Oh my word. Boy does it pop on the sleek, sandy backdrop! I'm loving the shimmering backsplash too! There are so many other head-turning details throughout the home, but my favorite list includes the fabulous rugs, unique light fixtures, beautiful dining chairs and gorgeous slipcovered bed! The mirror in the foyer is amazing too, especially flanked by the lovely turquoise lamps. But again....that range! I'll be dreaming of it tonight!

Not only is Paysage a design firm, it's also a home furnishings store...be sure to check it out if you're in the Wilmington area! And if you love anything you see here, all of the furnishings in the home are available through them—just give them a call at 910-256-6050 or shoot them an email at info@paysage.com!

Have a great weekend everyone!
