trends this holiday season!

DESIGN & DÉCOR

5 Ways to Decorate for the Holidays

1. Garland

Garland is always customary holiday decoration! Take your home to the next level and place garland around your stairwell and banister.

2. Ornaments

Ornaments are a classic Christmas tree decorating item! Try to find ornaments that go with the theme of your holiday décor. If you are looking for unique ornaments, be sure to check out our newly stocked ornaments for this Christmas season!

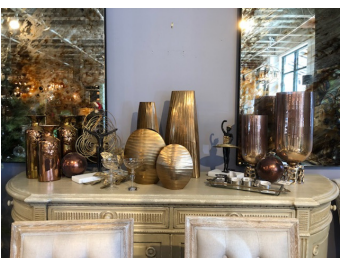

3. Scents

During the holiday season, the smell of your home is something people will always remember. Popular holiday scents are pine cones, leaves, and marshmallows. Stop by Paysage pick up our signature candle. Or, get our lavender Christmas balls!

4. Photos

A picture speaks a thousand words. Photos are great to have around the house during the holiday season. If you are looking for a frame, be sure to check out Paysage!

5. Colors

Make sure to pick a color scheme that compliments all of the different decorations you have in your home. By picking a color scheme it ensures that all pieces and colors flow together.

"The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt with the heart."
- Helen Keller

With Christmas around the corner, it is time to start decorating your home for the holidays.

Before you start decorating, pick out a color scheme to ensure that your décor seamlessly works together. This will also help you stay on track with all holiday décor purchases.

Navy is a great perfect for the holiday season. It's calming classic for any home owner. Owner and head designer, Gigi Sireyjol-Horsley says "You just cannot do wrong with navy!"

Navy is also a great color to use during the winter. As a very dark shade of blue, it can work great with any of classic Christmas colors: red, gold, white, and green.

GIGI'S KITCHEN

Crawfish Étouffée

INGREDIENTS

- 1/4 c. vegetable oil
- 1/3 c. flour
- 1 small green bell pepper, diced to 1/3-1/2 inch
- 1 medium onion, diced to 1/3-1/2 inch
- 2 ribs of celery, diced to 1/3-1/2 inch
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 c. fish stock (or clam juice)
- 2 medium tomatoes, peeled, seeded, and diced to 1/3-1/2 inch
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 1/2 t. fresh basil, copped
- 3/4 fresh thyme leaves
- 1-4 t. Tabasco
- 1 lb. frozen peeled crawfish tails, defrosted
- 1/2 c. green onions, thinly sliced on the bias
- Steamed white rice

Craw fish in the Christmas season?
YES!

The crawfish season in Louisiana starts in November and runs into June.

Folks start firing up their boiling pots even before Thanksgiving.

In the Carolinas, you easily find frozen crawfish or you can improve this dish with small local fresh shrimp.

Enjoy!

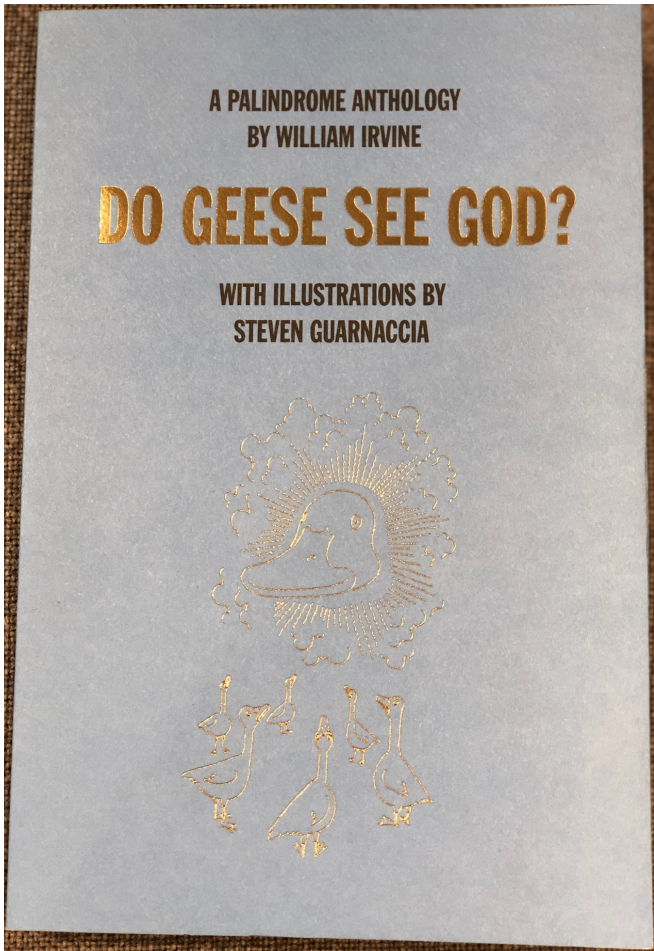

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Add oil and flour to a large pot and heat over low to moderately low heat. Stir constantly for 15 to 30 minutes until the roux turns a deep, dark chocolate brown. Monitor the heat carefully so that the roux does not burn.
2. Add the peppers, onion and celery. Cook until softened, 5 to 10 minutes. Add the garlic and cook another 1 to 2 minutes.
3. Add the fish stock, tomatoes, bay leaf, basil and thyme. Increase heat, bring to a boil and reduce heat to simmer, stirring occasionally, until sauce thickens, about 15 minutes.
4. Add hot sauce, crawfish and scallions. Heat until the crawfish are warmed (or until uncooked shrimp are cooked, if using).
5. Serve hot with steamed white rice.
