SEA LOVE SEA SALT

Sea Love Sea Salt

After experimenting with several different salt-making methods, Amanda and Dave Jacobs settled on solar evaporation.

The Jacobs' note that although this process of salt-making may be the most time-consuming, it "also creates flakey yet crunchy salt, while using no energy".

Their collection of culinary finishing salts features flavors to complement even the most unique dishes. With products ranging from traditional garlic or rosemary salt, to fresh combinations such as sriracha, truffle, or dill pickle salt, you are sure to find a one-of-a-kind blend.

Sea Love Sea Salt isn't just for food, though. They also carry lip balm and salt blends for drinks, like their zesty Sunset Cocktail Salt.
