A NEW HUE: Fuchsia Purple

PANTONE'S FUCHSIA PURPLE

A new year brings an opportunity for change. Traditionally, a new year has been associated with crisp whites and blues, colors that represent a clean slate.

However, in 2019 we are channeling energy and liveliness, represented by Pantone's Fuchsia Purple. Luckily we have tons of great pieces in this bright fun color.

Fuchsia gets its name from 16th-century

German botanist Leonhard Fuchs. The fuchsia plant is named in his honor, and the color was first introduced as the dye fuschine.

It became known as magenta in 1859, to mark the French victory at the battle of Magenta, a city in Italy.

Bring a reinvigorating element into your home this year with touches of Fuchsia Purple.

ON THE HUNT: Are you prepared for 2019?

Livening up your home doesn't have to be expensive. Be surrounded in style with these affordable decor pieces.

GALETTE DES ROIS

The galette des rois, celebrating Epiphany, the day the Three Kings visited the infant Jesus, is baked throughout January in France. Composed of two circles of puff pastry sandwiching a frangipani filling, each comes with a crown and always has a trinket, called a fève, or bean baked into it. It's an invitation to gather, as much party game as pastry - if your slice has the fève, you get the crown and the right to be king or queen for the day.

INGREDIENTS FOR FILLING

6 tablespoons unsalted butter, room temperature
 3/4 cup confectioners' sugar
 3/4 cup almond flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 2 large eggs, at room temperature
 1 tablespoon rum
 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

TO ASSEMBLE:

2 9 1/2-inch-diameter circles puff-pastry dough
 1 whole almond or dried bean, for the charm

TOTAL TIME: 45 MINUTES

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING:

Working with a mixer or by hand, beat the butter and sugar together until creamy and light. Beat in the almond flour and the salt. Mix in 1 whole egg, then the white from the second egg (reserve the yolk). Mix in the rum, if using, and the extract. Cover, and refrigerate for at least 1 hour.

Mix the yolk with 1 teaspoon cold water; cover, and refrigerate until needed.

INSTRUCTIONS TO ASSEMBLE:

Place one circle of dough on a baking sheet lined with parchment paper. Spread the filling evenly over the dough, leaving a 1-inch border bare. Press the charm into the filling. Moisten the border with cold water, position the second circle of dough over the filling and press around the border with your fingertips to seal well. Using the back of a table knife, scallop the edges by pushing into the dough (about 1/4 to 1/2-inch deep) every 1/2 inch or so. Refrigerate for at least 30 minutes.

Heat the oven to 425. Brush a thin layer of the reserved yolk glaze over the top of the galette, avoiding the border (if glaze drops down the rim, the galette won't rise). With the point of a pairing knife, etch a design into the top of the galette. Cut 6 small slits in the top as steam vents.

DESIGN & DECOR

MIXING ANTIQUES WITH MODERN HANDPICKED BY GIGI

Gigi loves mixing antique accessories with modern decor, it's all about creating a balance and proportion by mixing old items with new.

Incorporating modern items with antique pieces is a great way to keep a room fresh. It also adds contrast and depth, and ultimately creates balance.

Some ideas that Gigi recommends are to put a modern lamp on an antique table. Place antique frames and accessories on a modern coffee table, like above.

Overall, you can never go wrong with mixing it up in your home. Keeping those heirloom pieces and mixing in new is a fun way to make your home uniquely yours.
