"WE LOST ONE OF THE GREATEST CHAMPIONS OF THE INDUSTRY. WILLIAM YEOWARD ADMIRERD THE PAST BUT HIS EMBRACE OF THE FUTURE WAS UNEQUIVOCAL. DURING ONE OF MY TRIPS TO HIGH POINT, NORTH CAROLINA I HAD THE HONOR TO BE ONE OF HIS DINNER GUESTS. IT WAS SUCH A PRIVILEGE TO ENJOY HIS CLEVER AND REFRESHINGLY DRY SENSE OF HUMOR. WE SPOKE ABOUT HIS EXPERIENCES AS A DESIGNER AS WELL AS HIS TRIPS TO FACTORIES IN CHINA. I EVEN STILL REMEMBER HIM SHARING STORIES FROM HIS CHILDHOOD. THROUGHOUT THIS TIME, PAYSAGE HAS HAD THE PLEASURE TO REPRESENT HIS WHIMSICAL CREATIONS AND BEAUTIFUL FABRICS--ALL INSPIRED BY FAMILY PIECES.

THANK YOU MR. YEOWARD FOR SHARING YOUR "JOIE DE VIVRE" THROUGH YOUR CRAFTSMANSHIP"

The late designer William Yeoward passed away peacefully on June 18, 2019, after a long courageous battle with cancer. In case you aren't familiar with his name, William Yeoward was one of the design industry's leading creative forces in interior design and fine crystal tableware. This tribute is all about celebrating his life and great impact on the world of design.

GIGI'S EXPERTISE ON OFFICE DECOR

Whether you have your own office or are a member of the cubicle community, you spend a lot of time at work, so don't overlook your work space as a place for great design potential.

It all starts with the perfect desk.

You can really give your desk a style upgrade by choosing a chair that is not necessarily meant to be used as a desk chair. We like to pull chairs from the dining room or a side chair from the living room or another space in the home. You can amp up the style with a nice throw on the back of the chair or even a brightly patterned throw pillow.

A NEW HUE:

Peach Pink, Paloma & Fruit Dove

SELECTED FROM PANTONE'S
COLORS OF FALL/WINTER 2019

PANTONE'S COLORS OF Fall/Winter 2019

Chili Pepper	Fruit Dove	Galaxy Blue
Crème de Pêche	Sugar Almond	Bluestone
Peach Pink	Dark Cheddar	Orange Tiger
Evening Blue	Paloma	Guacamole

Confident. Bold. Strong.

The Autumn 2019 colors are relatable as well as inspiring--suggesting a thirst for liberation and a desire to realize our own individualized unique identities. An extroverted pink, Fruit Dove creates a presence that can't be ignored. Warm and flattering, Peach Pink imparts a healthy glow. An unpretentious, yet at the same time elegant gray, Paloma endures.

"Colors for Autumn/Winter 2019-2020 range from easy and sophisticated to strikingly different and unique," said Leatrice Eiseman, Executive Director of the Pantone Color Institute. "This palette of versatile hues builds a sense of empowerment and confidence, enabling the client to choose the colors that best reflect his or her mood and persona."

Interested in Paysage products that use Peach Pink, Paloma and/or Fruit Dove? See one of our designers for tips on how to best incorporate these colors into your home.

ON THE HUNT:

Luxe for Less

Living up your home doesn't have to be expensive. As a child of the 80s, I recall all too well the artificial flowers of the 90s. They were bad. Really, really bad, y'all. If you're shaking your head in agreement, then you probably have the same aversion to them that I've had for over three decades. It was just a HUGE no-no. Kinda like white pants after Labor Day. But we don't really listen to that rule now, so why can't we give artificial flower arrangements another try? Gigi's impeccable selection of our "everlasting" flowers will absolutely change your mind. Be surrounded in style with these affordable pieces that don't cost much more than grocery store flowers, yet last a lot longer.

TIPS:

1. Paysage botanicals are wildly flexible. Bow, bend, arch or contort them to retrofit your favorite pieces in any of your existing vase.
2. Bring your vase into Paysage and let our team help create an arrangement that will literally last a life time.

"{Danielle} helped my mom and myself with this beautiful flower arrangement. Thank you for your help! I'm thrilled with the outcome!"

TARTE DU SOLEIL AU PESTO

The French have a way with puff pastry! They can turn even the simplest recipe into the most artistic creations and the Tarte Au Soleil is a stunning example of this. It's served as a savory nibble during the French cocktail hour, or Aperò, as it's affectionately called, which can go on for several hours! So having something filling to nibble on, to brace yourself, is always a great idea!

INGREDIENTS

2 puff pastries
1 can of pesto (not too liquid)
60 g of pine nuts
1 egg

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat the oven to 350° F
2. Place puff pastry on parchment paper and line it with pesto. Be sure to leave two inches of border.
3. Put 1/4 cup of pine nuts on the pesto (or more if you are greedy!).
4. Moisten the edge of the dough with a wet brush.
5. Cover with the second puff pastry and solder both by pressing on the border.
6. Using a brush, brush the dough with a beaten whole egg. Put a water glass in the center of the pie.
7. Cut 16 strips around the glass from the center outwards.
8. Remove the glass and make the twists by making 4 turns for each one.
9. Arrange the rest of the pine nuts on the pesto twists and the center part
10. Cook the pie for 30-40 minutes.

SCENT OF THE MONTH

Rose

GERANIUM

Introduced in Europe during the 17th century, geraniums were initially used for medicinal purposes. They were soon used in perfumery as well, for the aromatic properties of their leaves and stems. The rose-like aroma of geranium is particularly delicate, both sweet and strong, very similar to that of rose, yet distinctive thanks to its light green and citrus notes. PANIER DES SENS has selected the Pelargonium Graveolens, also known as Rose Geranium to embody the first fragrance of this iconic collection.

GIGI'S SEPTEMBER MUSIC CHOICE

"As a little girl, I was self-conscious with my height and deep voice. I struggled; but [...] I discovered the chance I had to be singular and I realized my differences are what make me unique. I then slowly started to accept myself."

- CLARA LUCIANI

Launching her solo debut Sainte-Victoire in April 2018, Clara Luciani is already one of the frontrunners of French pop's nouvelle vague taking the country by storm; recently gaining further notoriety by winning a Victoires de la Musique award for Group or Artist Stage Révélation of the Year. Intimate and autobiographical, Clara's Sainte-Victoire ranges from feminism to heartbreak, expressing a range of sound and emotion in a deep, melodious voice reminiscent 60s chanteuses Nico, Françoise Hardy, and Dalida. Collaborating with previous tastemaker Alma Jodorowsky, Semaine produced Clara's new official video for the eponymous track 'Sainte-Victoire.' Noting the album's personal nature, it's no surprise the young Marseillaise named her debut after the mountains that dominate the Provençal landscape.
