TIAN RECIPE

"One of my favorite summer recipes. Use your imagination, play with the colors of your veggies and make sure you cook it long enough to enjoy the flavors Bon appetit." -Gigi Horsley

INSTRUCTIONS

- Preheat oven to 400 degrees.
- Spread squash, zucchini, eggplant, and tomato slices onto a rimmed baking pan--exposing as much of each slice as possible.
- Season evenly with 3/8 teaspoon of salt
- Arrange stacked slices of veggies in an upright position in a 2.5 quart baking dish. Sprinkle with pepper & the remaining 1/2 teaspoon of salt.
- Whisk together oil and garlic and pour evenly over vegetables. Sprinkle with Parmesan. Bake in preheated oven until cheese is lightly golden, and veggies are tender and begin to char on top.
- ~25 minutes

INGREDIENTS

- 3 small tomatoes cut into 1/4 inch slices
- 2 large yellow squash cut into 1/4 inch slices
- 1 large zucchini cut into 1/4 inch slices
- 1 small eggplant cut into 1/4 inch slices
- 1 teaspoon salt, divided
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 6 tablespoons, extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 garlic clove, grated
- 2.5 oz Parmesan Cheese, finely grated (about 3/4 cup)

CERAMIQUES DE LUSSAN

These charming Guinea Fowls have round bodies and tiny heads. French potter Heidi Caillard developed a tremendous fondness for these little creatures that ran around her yard and she began to create them in clay. Today Heidi's son Adrien and his family continue to create these fanciful birds in her tradition.

LOU DOILLON

JANE BIRKIN, who? Well let us introduce you to Lou, Jane's daughter.

The model and actress recorded her first album "Places," which came out last summer, in just 10 days with no money and zero expectations. Half the songs were written over the previous seven years just sitting around the house. "I always lived with guitarists," she said over a cappuccino last fall in the lobby of the Dream Downtown hotel in New York, the morning after a show at the Highline Ballroom. "When they would leave, I would just pick up their acoustic guitars and start doing finger picking and write." When she decided to record the album, she told her producer, "Let's do it petite. If it works out, good." And if it doesn't? "Then I can die in a corner without anyone noticing."

Doillon, who will represent her country in Australia this month at the Francophilic music, food and wine fest So Frenchy So Chic, has quickly emerged as one of her country's great contemporary fashion icons. Here, she shares her secrets for effortless style.

- Stay warm.
- Treat yourself.
- Make Armani part of your beauty regimen.
- Less really isn't more.
- Get dressed for yourself, not to impress others.
- Go your own way.
